Dear Mr. Wisecarver:

Although I have already sent an appreciation note to Jack Bowsher regarding my most worthwhile trip to IBM's training facility in Thornwood, I would very much like to convey my appreciation to Mr. Tim Myer, Account Marketing Representative, for all his help in coordinating my trip to New York. His extra effort made my entire trip most enjoyable. He is a credit to your organization.

Sincerely,

Director of
Training and Education
